419 RR

This simple two-story frame house was built before 1915. The rectangular house is two short bays wide by two long bays deep. Its gable and faces the street. Doors pierce the southern bay on the east and the western bay on the north. 6/6 sash windows furnished with louvered shutters occupy the other bays on the east and north. A shed-roofed porch with square posts crosses the east or street facade. The house is presently covered with grey asphalt shingles imitating cut stone.
